

Simchat Torah Celebration in Two Acts

Saturday,
October 10, 2009

Act I – Shabbat /Yom Tov Morning – 9:45 AM

We circle the sanctuary seven times with our Torah scrolls.

We complete the Torah and begin it again.

We call up our children for a group aliyah under a chuppah.

We remember loved ones who taught us Torah by reciting “Yizkor.”

We honor our “chattan and Kallah of the Torah,” Marty and Andrea Glenn.

Festive kiddush follows the service.

Act II – Dancing with the Scrolls – 7:30 PM

We fill our sanctuary with dancing and joy as we usher in a new year of reading the Torah. Klezmer musicians will enhance our festivities.

We surround our children with an unfurled Torah as we read the last verses of Deuteronomy and the first verses of Genesis.

Come have a Slivovitz, join the hakkafot, and celebrate the wonders of Torah and Jewish peoplehood!
