

A Special Needs Lecture Series

sponsored through a collaboration of the Yad B'Yad Program at Congregation Kol Ami, Temple Israel Center and Westchester Jewish Community Services

This four-part lecture series is offered for parents, caregivers, educators and others to explore issues related to children and youth with special needs.

FAMILY DYNAMICS PANEL PRESENTATION

Wednesday, February 24, 2010

7:00 -- 8:30 PM

(Refreshments 6:45 – 7:00 PM)

Temple Israel Center Reception Hall
280 Old Mamaroneck Road, White Plains, NY

Panel Speakers:

Ellen Wolfson is a Clinical Social Worker who has extensive experience working with children and their families. In addition to her private practice, she has provided trainings and presentations at numerous schools and special needs programs in Westchester County.

Charley Moskowitz, LMSW, is the Special Needs Enrichment Director at the JCC of Mid-Westchester SNAAC (Special Needs Academic and Arts Center), Circle of friends (An Adult Support group) and SibConnection (A Sibling Support group). She has 20 years of experience working with the special needs population and currently provides educational and support groups for children and adolescents with special needs, siblings, parents and grandparents.

 Nick Lombardi, a sibling of a child with disabilities, will be joining the panel to share his experiences.*

Presentation is free of charge

Space is limited.

RSVP via email by February 17, 2010

For more information, contact

Karen Millman: karenmillman@nykolami.org

Michelle Steinhart: m.steinhart@templeisraelcenter.org

Patricia L Grossman: pgrossman@wjcs.com

Save this date for continuation of the lecture series!

Strategies for Developing Social Skills with Peter Gerhardt: Wed., April 21, 2010

This series is made possible through the generous contributions of UJA-Federation of New York, UJA-Federation - Westchester, the Forchheimer Foundation and Mindworks Charitable Trust.

