

Dear Parents,

Today we read how Abraham's servant selected Rebekkah to become Isaac's wife. The servant Eliezer was pleased to find a kind and generous wife for Isaac.

This week I would like to emulate/model Rebecca's kind and generous actions at the well. I would like to do acts of chesed (loving kindness) for you and our family. Together let's list some things that would be helpful. (watering plants, taking out the garbage, playing with younger siblings,).

If you ask me the following story starters, I can better tell you what I learned.

Eliezer liked Rebekkah because....

Eliezer only asked Rebekkah for _____, but she.....

Rebekkah helped his camels by....

Rebekkah will make a good wife for Isaac because.....

I think Rebekkah would make a good friend because.....

One way I can be like Rebekkah is....(see assignment above)

We also learned:

The following Hebrew letter . It makes the sound of _____ A Hebrew word I know that begins with that letter is... English words I know that begin with this letter are.....
